massachusetts college of art bulletin

October 21-26, 1974

Monday, October 21

Exhibitions Continuing: Expanded Vision -- The Artist As A Group. Longwood Gallery, through October 25.

The Dancers Unmasked, prints by Tamara Luft. Overland Gallery, through October 25.

Senior Staff Meeting. President's Conference Room, 1:00 P.M.

Exhibitions and Program Committee Meeting. Longwood, B-3 1:00 P.M.

College Council Meeting. President's Conference Room, 4:00P.M.

Tuesday, October 22

Wednesday, October 23

Scholastic Standards Committee Meeting. Longwood, B-5, 12:00 noon.

Faculty Advancement and Welfare Committee Meeting. President's Conference Room, 4:30 P.M.

International Folk Dancing Class. Longwood, C-4 and C-6, 8:00 P.M.

Thursday, October 24

CUE Committee Meeting. Dean McGavern's Office, 12:15 P.M.

Admissions Committee Meeting. President's Conference Room, 3:30 P.M.

W.E.B. Program Night. Film: Antonia -- A Portrait of the Woman. Longwood C-4, 7:30 P.M.

Friday, October 25

Art Education Department Discussion Series. Speaker, Nancy Stevenson: The Natural Way to Reading. Longwood, B-6, 12:30 - 1:30 P.M.

Opera: Puccini's La Boheme. Presented by the New England Chamber Opera Group. Presented in cooperation with the Studio for Interrelated Media. Longwood Auditorium, 8:00 P.M.

Saturday, October 26 Puccini's La Boheme. Longwood Auditorium, 8:00 P.M.

* * *

The Massachusetts Council on the Arts has announced the inauguration of a new program of grants for individual artists -- The Creative Artists Service Program -- to provide financial support for a concentrated period of work in one's chosen field. Applications are available from the Council at its 14 Beacon Street office in Boston, 02108. The deadline for applications is November 1. For further details call Susan Channing or Leslie Klapman at 723-3851.

* * *

Dean of Students, David McGavern is pleased and proud to announce that the following MCA students have been nominated for inclusion in the national annual publication of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities:

Mark Alexander, '75
Omobowale Ayorinde, '75
John Bristo, '75
Gail Hendricks, '75
Patricia Ile, '75
William Kipp, '75
June Leigh, '75
Jeffrey Mauzy, '75
Cathy Nordhelm, '76
Amy Stanger, '75
Lisa Ulanoff, '76
Robert Zemke, '76
Christine Armstrong, '75
Peter Babey, '75
William Chapman, '75
Virginia Hughes, '75
Ann Jimerson, '75
Ann Lee, '75
Linda Martyniak, '75
William Nicklasson, '75
Kenton Sharp, '75
Francis Toohey, '75
Richard Yee, '75
Marlene Zook, '75

* * *

In response to a growing number of faculty and staff requests for influenza shots, College Nurse Shirley McCutcheon has secured the services of Dr. Joseph Kerrin of Health, Inc., who has kindly agreed to set up a flu vaccine program here at the College.

As the supply of vaccine is limited, Ms. McCutcheon will have to know the number of those interested by Tuesday, October 22. The vaccine will be administered, it is planned, on Tuesday, October 29, at hours to be announced, by a member of Health, Inc. staff, assisted by Ms. McCutcheon.

Ms. McCutcheon notes that the state Department of Health has not endorsed administering this vaccine to all citizens; it does provide for giving the vaccine without charge at specified locations to those over sixty or those who suffer from certain chronic illnesses. Information concerning the state program may be obtained from Ms. McCutcheon.

* * *

The Lexington Bicentennial Committee has invited artists to enter its Poster Contest for a graphic concept appropriate to the Bicentennial. The poster should be 18 by 24 inches in a maximum of three colors (plus white) without the use of half-tones. Glossy black and white photographs may also be submitted. Copy or lettering may be included on the poster. The design can range from contemporary to traditional.

Winning posters will become the property of the Lexington Bicentennial Committee, and copies will be made and sold under their auspices. First prize will be $500 plus a small royalty on sales. Second prize will be $300 plus the same royalty arrangement. Entries will be accepted November 15-30.

Winners will be announced in January. Entrants should send their name, address and phone number in a sealed envelope fixed to the back of the poster, and send or deliver their entry to Lexington Bicentennial Committee, Visitors Center, 1875 Mass Avenue, Lexington, Mass. 02173

* * *

Dean of Students, David McGavern announces:

The Student Government Association elections will be held on October 29
October 30
October 31
in all three buildings respectively. Volunteer help is needed to man (person) the polls. Please contact Dean McGavern if you wish to help.

* * *

A note from Ilona von Karolyi:

The Attorney General has announced that the Commonwealth will not appeal Superior Court Justice John Moriarty's decision in the case of the Trustees of the Stigmatine Fathers, Inc. versus the Secretary of Administration and Finance, which found that the purchase agreement in regard to the Dover property entered into by the Board of Trustees of State Colleges was valid and binding.

Whether this means that the Commonwealth will actually purchase the property and whether it will be used for a new site for the Massachusetts College of Art are questions still unresolved.

* * *

Phyllis Ewen was a guest on Channel 5's Your Place and Mine, televised on Sunday, October 13, which discussed "Women and Creativity."